WINE CLUB

Terms and Conditions

Thank you for your membership. We hope you enjoy the benefits of your new wine club. We delight in the opportunity to serve you, please see the terms and conditions below.

- While you are invited to remain a club member indefinitely, (and trust us, we have every indication of creating such a club!), we build the club wine portfolio, develop the promotional programs, and invite new members to join, for a mutual commitment of a one year minimum tenure, in four beautiful seasonal releases of Siboney wines. All Club Invitations, Waiting Lists, and Acceptance subject to Siboney review.
- Requests for Holds, Skips, or Early Cancellation prior to the minimum term are at the discretion of Siboney Cellars, and subject to promotional benefit charges, and a one-time purchase/buy-out of remaining club wine bottles from current inventory selections to honor the mutual commitment.
- In order to process all membership and provide excellent service, credit cards are processed up to 30 days prior to the release date. And, for changes, credit cards can be processed 60 days after release.
- Must be 21+ to be a member. By signing up for wine club membership you are confirming you are over 21.
- Adult (21+) signature required at delivery. Please designate an address for shipping where someone over 21 will be present to sign during normal business hours (business addresses OK!) No PO Boxes allowed.
- We ship to most states, based on shipping laws and limitations. Any purchases made when customer is not on-premise at time of purchase (i.e. wine clubs, online, etc.) will be fulfilled and shipped from WineCub via UPS. Shipping dates are subject to weather-related and/or carrier-related holds.
- We will bill your credit card automatically for the discounted cost of wine for each club order plus shipping charges (if applicable), prior to Release. By signing up for the wine club you authorize Siboney Cellars to charge your credit card for each club order until directed otherwise by you, subject to the mutual commitment terms. Member Choice, extra wine, and other charges will be applied as needed.
- Any deposits paid prior to the first shipment are non-refundable and will be applied to the first shipment unless you cancel your club membership prior to delivery and the deposit will be forfeited.
- You are responsible for any shipping, return and re-shipping costs.
- You must notify Siboney Cellars via email at Club@SiboneyCellars.com at least 10 days prior to each club order payment processing with any changes/cancellation.
- You agree that if you selected "pick up" and you have not picked up within 30 days of the Release event, your wine may be automatically shipped and shipping fees charged to your credit card.
- Once the order is processed the wine is considered purchased even if returned and will not be refunded.
- Siboney Cellars may substitute a different vintage of a wine (or a different wine of equal or greater value) if the specified vintage designated for that shipment is depleted prior to pick-up or shipment.
- The "Member Choice" Benefit is subject to inventory levels made available at the time of Club Release. Not all bottles are always guaranteed to be swapped. Generally, newly released Red Wines do have a 1 Bottle Minimum. White, rosé and sparkling wines are usually offered with Choice of swap. All swaps are naturally subject to price differences. Member Choice is offered through the Club Member's Online portal 5 days before Credit Cards are charged. In rare instances, it can be exercised on Pick-Up Party dates.
- The Free Member Tasting Benefit & Discounted Guest Tastings must be paid on Member's account.
- Club Pick-up events are fantastic. Tickets are sold to ensure accuracy in membership RSVPs, with great culinary paired wine releases, live music and our best hospitality, for a truly memorable experience. And, are entirely optional. Club release wines are available for pick up on separate dates, too!
